Prospectus

Eligibility

Students in grades 6 – 12 and artists eighteen and older are invited to submit work to “Read...Unite...Survive”. Work must be original to the artist and created in the last two years.

Requirements

Artwork must relate to “The Hunger Games” by Suzanne Collins and the themes brought out in the book such as survival, self-sacrifice, competition, love, personal growth, rebellion, and death.

Acceptable Media

Entries may be two and three dimensional but limited to paintings, drawings, sculpture, print-making, photography, and fine craft.

Participants may submit up to two (2) entries. All two dimensional entries must be ready to hang with picture wire on the back. No saw tooth hangers. We wish to accommodate artists in any way we are able, but we reserve the right to reject any entry that requires special installation.

Exhibit Location

The student artwork will be on exhibit at the Kings Mountain Arts Center (The Depot), 301 N. Piedmont Ave., Kings Mountain.

The adult work will be on exhibit at Cleveland Memorial Library, Mauney Memorial Library and Spangler Library.
